Harper and Hunter are fraternal twins with only one thing in common: they once lived together in their mom's belly. When their mom tells them they must play outside together after a fight, they decide to build a fort tall enough to keep her out!

While gathering sticks and stones to stack, Hunter finds a super-spotty sparkle stone and has a lightbulb moment. He wonders which one has more spots, the speckled stone or his sister's freckled face?

Your Face Lights up the World is a picture book that explores themes of self-esteem, sibling rivalry, and jealousy with flair, taking kids on a journey toward self-acceptance. Complete with journal pages to capture renewed feelings of confidence, this inspirational book will help kids see themselves in a new light.

Your Face Lights up the World is the recipient of a Gold Mom's Choice Award, Gold Literary Titan Award, and Gold Readers' Favorite Award. It's also a Reading With Your Kids Certified Great Read.
