

Special Event

Saturday, August 17th • 1pm - 2pm

CREEQUE ALLEY, an acoustic duo featuring local musicians Sean Fullerton and Dan Kirouac, pay tribute to traditional American Folk and "Feel Good" Flower Power Folk Rock hits from 1960 - 1969. Using a variety of guitars, harmonicas, and tight two-part vocal harmonies, CREEQUE ALLEY performs the songs with instrumental and vocal accuracy, and adds educational and historic information about each song, along with a bit of humor throughout the performance. Sean and Dan encourage audience participation as well. Artists featured will include: Bob Dylan, The Byrds, Woodie Guthrie, Mamas and the Papas, Youngbloods, Barry McGuire, and more!

This program is sponsored in part by a grant from the Westborough Cultural Council, a local agency, which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.
