Lynn Carriker and family

Lynn Carriker and her family have lived in Natick for over 40 years. She is a former elementary school teacher and hospice nurse. She is the mother of 3 and grandmother of 5.

Lynn's newly published children's book, THE TREASURE, tells the story of a child in search of a treasure a treasure that can change the world. This child enlists the aid of the forest animals to help in finding the treasure. Come and help the child find this treasure and you will be just as amazed and surprised as the child!

Lynn's son and husband will accompany her for this presentation.
