Storytime with Amy Li

Join high school student Amy Li as she leads a community story time! Amy's story time will feature a variety of beloved picture books. Children of any age are welcome. Story times promote language development, enhance cognitive skills, foster imagination, and so much more! Support your child's development by attending Amy's story time, where she will attempt to spark young minds and inspire a lifelong passion for reading and learning. Don't miss this fun and educational opportunity!
