

Author Event

Diane Barnes

Saturday,
February 8th
1-3pm

From the author of All We Could Still Have comes a charming tale about one woman who embraces a family curse, laying bare the dreams we give up—and the chances we take to get them back.

Mary Mulligan has two problems: her wisdom teeth...and everything else. Her only daughter is moving overseas. Her husband would rather go golfing than spend time with her. And Mary's left to wonder why she abandoned her career ambitions when loneliness is all she has to show for it.

Plus her teeth really, really hurt. But that's one problem she can fix—never mind the stories that say if she gets her wisdom teeth removed, the last thirty years of her life will be erased. In fact, Mary wouldn't mind if the Mulligan curse were actually true.

Turns out, it is.

The world around her hasn't changed, but Mary is suddenly twenty-four again, with the life she once dreamed of still ahead of her. As she embarks on this new beginning, Mary comes to realize that those dreams aren't nearly as important as everything she once had. If only she knew how to get it all back.

Westborough Shopping Center
Route 9 & Lyman St. • 508-366-4959
Open Mon-Sat 10am-6pm • Sun 10am-5pm
www.tatnuck.com

