Jared Grace

Saturday,
September 30
1-4pm

Moving house to try to cure his writer's block, Russell and his family head to the picturesque town of Isolation in northern New Hampshire. But a few months after their arrival, a creature is stalking the woods and the bodies begin to pile up. Uncovering the horrors of history to understand what this monster is and how to stop it, Russell and his friends battle their own demons in an attempt to save their futures.

Jared Grace was born just south of Boston, Massachusetts. He now lives in the White Mountains of New Hampshire where he loves to spend his days hiking, writing, researching paranormal events, and reading. A lover of many genres, Jared writes about what he knows and loves - nature and people. This is Jared Grace's first novel but it will not be his last.
