Valeria Mendoza

Saturday,
November 25th
11-12pm

The Planet of Joy is the first work in a collection that takes us on a journey full of adventures and fantasies to navigate through the emotions that invade us as children. Valeria's children's books invite reflection at all ages and serve as tools for parents, teachers, and caregivers to explain to our little ones what is happening inside them with friendly, exciting, and fun language. What began as a testimonial gift for her son became this marvelous literary work that no longer belongs only to Santiago but to everyone. It opens the door so that, among its beautifully illustrated pages, we can offer our children a valuable tool.
