Crafting and Coloring with Local Children's Authors

Fern Nissim

Fern Nissim and Little Red Ant Books present three creative tales about a little red ant with a big message on the important values of Freedom, Tolerance, and Acceptance! Every family has their story. Little Red Ant Books promote asking questions, taking pride in every family's journey, and encouraging kids to learn and accept the backgrounds of others.

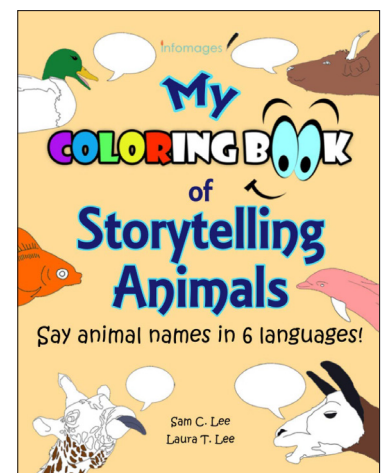

Leah Hirschorn

Leah Hirschorn is an educator with over 20 years' experience from preschool through elementary school. In her first children's book, Learn Something, twin siblings are excited to start kindergarten. Their father tells them every day to "learn something." But learn what? Follow along their first week of school to find out. You just may find an important message.

Sam Lee

Sam, a highly adept photographer, captures the splendor of both nature and life events. After decades in the corporate world, Sam now crafts mesmerizing visual concepts and delves into the ever-evolving landscape of social trends and customer expectations. He subsequently evolved into a children's book publisher and merchandise designer.
