Whether on a sunny day or in blackest night, the sky holds wonderful things to see and explore. Use your imagination when reading Pirate Ships and Shooting Stars. In the bright blue sky you may see acrobats in a circus tent, and in the stars find Orion the hunter and Taurus the bull!

When Carolinda Goodman doesn't have her nose stuck in a book, she loves to explore nature, and the sky is one of her favorite places to look for adventure. Whether she finds clipper ships in the clouds or hunters in the starry night sky, it's all an exciting quest. Carolinda is also the author of the popular picture book Once in a Full Moon that tells the stories behind the names for that monthly bright, round orb that lights the sky.
