

Special Event

Saturday, May 24th • 11am - 12pm

Come for a reading, book signing, special craft, and DONUTS in our event room!

The Bakers Dozen is a bakery known for its decadent treats and its dozen bakers. Twelve cookie, cake, and pastry makers. One day a new baker, Kristen, walks into the bakery offering her own specialty...doughnuts! Sweet!

But why should the bakery change? Doesn't a baker's dozen mean 12? Written in adorable rhyme, ideal for young readers, the story reminds us that there is always room for one more—whether a doughnut or friend!

Author Amy Moore is a preschool teacher at who has always loved working with children, and teaches preschool dance classes in her hometown of Ashland, MA.
