The wedding was weeks away for two young lovers who felt lucky to have each other. Then, it was over, as one of them abruptly disappeared. Audrey was not taken against her will. Rather, her will itself had been taken.

The Contraption is a novel that depicts the challenges faced by a woman who has been recruited into a dangerous, coercive religious cult. Her fiancé is left not knowing even where she is. The cult, Church of the Mountain of Radiance, is an all-controlling psychological prison.

Barton A. Stewart is a long-time student of the cult scene. The Contraption is a highly realistic depiction what can happen in cases like this. Avoiding the sensationalism of so many novels on this subject, Stewart offers a look into another world, which unfortunately exists in the here and now.
